

I'm an "over the road" trucker who finds the instant traffic & weather information to be a valuable service. I don't fully understand what the NAB objects to about this service but, it doesn't seem any different than television news broadcasting the national weather conditions & forecast. Especially since I PAY for satellite radio!